- What do you usually do at weekends?

- On Saturdays I usually get up late, at 10:30; first, I have a shower and then I have breakfast at about 11:00 . Next, I go to my room, because I always do my homework there. I never watch TV before lunch because TV programmes are hardly ever interesting at that time. After lunch I often take a nap and then I meet my friends. We sometimes stay at home in the evening and play board games together. After dinner my friends go back home and I go to bed a little after midnight.

On Sunday morning I always wake up at 8 am because I like getting up early; after my shower I make a cup of coffee and read the newspaper before I go jogging. I love sports. On Sunday evening I stay home and I never go out. I'm usually very comfortable in my tracksuit and I am hardly ever bored when I am at home with my parents . Finally, at about 11 at night I go to bed, ready for the next week.
