

7.- POLITICAL CORRECTNESS

- Do you consider yourself a politically correct person?
- What's the difference between political correctness and politeness or manners?
- Is political correctness a sign of progress in society?
- What main points or behaviours must be learnt to be politically correct?
- Have you ever felt treated in a non-politically correct way? What happened? How did you feel and react?
- By not mincing your words, you're on the verge of being non-politically correct. Do you agree with this statement?
- Political correctness can mean an outstanding step forward in social interaction. What's your point of view?

✂ -----

7.- POLITICAL CORRECTNESS

- Do you consider yourself a politically correct person?
- What's the difference between political correctness and politeness or manners?
- Is political correctness a sign of progress in society?
- What main points or behaviours must be learnt to be politically correct?
- Have you ever felt treated in a non-politically correct way? What happened? How did you feel and react?
- By not mincing your words, you're on the verge of being non-politically correct. Do you agree with this statement?
- Political correctness can mean an outstanding step forward in social interaction. What's your point of view?

✂ -----

7.- POLITICAL CORRECTNESS

- Do you consider yourself a politically correct person?
- What's the difference between political correctness and politeness or manners?
- Is political correctness a sign of progress in society?
- What main points or behaviours must be learnt to be politically correct?
- Have you ever felt treated in a non-politically correct way? What happened? How did you feel and react?
- By not mincing your words, you're on the verge of being non-politically correct. Do you agree with this statement?
- Political correctness can mean an outstanding step forward in social interaction. What's your point of view?

✂ -----

7.- POLITICAL CORRECTNESS

- Do you consider yourself a politically correct person?
- What's the difference between political correctness and politeness or manners?
- Is political correctness a sign of progress in society?
- What main points or behaviours must be learnt to be politically correct?
- Have you ever felt treated in a non-politically correct way? What happened? How did you feel and react?
- By not mincing your words, you're on the verge of being non-politically correct. Do you agree with this statement?
- Political correctness can mean an outstanding step forward in social interaction. What's your point of view?